

Special Awards

Character Award

This student has demonstrated good character built on personal integrity, compassion, and respect. This student has helped our community build dignity and self-worth through the support and caring of all of our students, faculty, administrators, and staff.

Innovation Award

This student has demonstrated a mindset of innovation founded upon open-minded inquiry, divergent thinking, and purposeful action. As an innovator, this student has developed the creativity, ingenuity, inventiveness, and originality of thought to tackle and resolve the challenges facing our world.

Leadership Award

This student has demonstrated great civic responsibility within our community. This student has been skillful in facilitating teamwork and collaboration to positively influence the actions of others.

Scholarship Award

This student has demonstrated a strong ability in academics intellectually, physically, emotionally, socially, artistically, and ethically. This student's work illustrates how the student values the rigors and joys of learning. This student has developed skills in intellectual curiosity, critical and creative thinking, and effective communication.

Traveler's Award

A traveler makes progress through a tough, mysterious, and new world. Travelers advance over time by continually expanding their talents to create success. This award goes to a person who seeks mastery through intelligence, curiosity, grit, determination, perseverance, and creativity. This traveling creates a foundation of maturity. Travel is growth.

Tankersley Gregorian Award

This student has demonstrated strength in each of the areas of our school mission. This student's good character is built on personal integrity, compassion, and respect. This student's work has illustrated intellectual, physical, emotional, social, artistic, and ethical academic strength. This student has demonstrated great civic responsibility within our community, showing skills in facilitating teamwork and collaboration to positively influence the actions of others. As an innovator, this student has developed the creativity, ingenuity, inventiveness, and originality of thought to tackle and resolve the challenges facing our world.

Special Awards

Character Award

This student has demonstrated good character built on personal integrity, compassion, and respect. This student has helped our community build dignity and self-worth through the support and caring of all of our students, faculty, administrators, and staff.

Innovation Award

This student has demonstrated a mindset of innovation founded upon open-minded inquiry, divergent thinking, and purposeful action. As an innovator, this student has developed the creativity, ingenuity, inventiveness, and originality of thought to tackle and resolve the challenges facing our world.

Leadership Award

This student has demonstrated great civic responsibility within our community. This student has been skillful in facilitating teamwork and collaboration to positively influence the actions of others.

Scholarship Award

This student has demonstrated a strong ability in academics intellectually, physically, emotionally, socially, artistically, and ethically. This student's work illustrates how the student values the rigors and joys of learning. This student has developed skills in intellectual curiosity, critical and creative thinking, and effective communication.

Traveler's Award

A traveler makes progress through a tough, mysterious, and new world. Travelers advance over time by continually expanding their talents to create success. This award goes to a person who seeks mastery through intelligence, curiosity, grit, determination, perseverance, and creativity. This traveling creates a foundation of maturity. Travel is growth.

Tankersley Gregorian Award

This student has demonstrated strength in each of the areas of our school mission. This student's good character is built on personal integrity, compassion, and respect. This student's work has illustrated intellectual, physical, emotional, social, artistic, and ethical academic strength. This student has demonstrated great civic responsibility within our community, showing skills in facilitating teamwork and collaboration to positively influence the actions of others. As an innovator, this student has developed the creativity, ingenuity, inventiveness, and originality of thought to tackle and resolve the challenges facing our world.